

Supporting Document 1: Public and Private Partnerships

Partner	Selected Partnership Highlights
Other Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) Maternal and Child Health Bureau Investments
Early Childhood Comprehensive Systems Impact Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Original NYS Early Childhood Comprehensive Systems grant co-led by Title V and Council on Children and Families; subsequently transferred to the Council on Children and Families, with continued Title V engagement to support current grant focus on implementing childcare quality standards and supporting childcare health consultants</li> </ul>
State Systems Development Initiative (SSDI)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Directly managed by Title V program within Division of Family Health</li> <li>State Systems Development Initiative staff support development of measures, review, and analysis of data to support Maternal and Child Health planning and projects and assist with Maternal and Child Health Services Block Grant reporting</li> </ul>
Maternal, Infant and Early Childhood Home Visiting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Directly managed by Title V program within the Division of Family Health, Bureau of Perinatal, Reproductive, and Sexual Health</li> <li>Strong focus on systems-building integrates Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting with other Title V and Maternal and Child Health resources</li> <li>The Title V and Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting needs assessments are coordinated within the Division of Family Health</li> </ul>
Maternal and Child Health Public Health Catalyst Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Based at the University Albany (UAlbany) School of Public Health</li> <li>Program co-founded (2015) in partnership with Title V Program; past NYS Title V Director serves as Co-Director of the Catalyst Program at UAlbany.</li> <li>Extensive formal collaboration to assist the Division of Family Health in planning, implementing, and writing the 2020-25 Statewide Title V Needs Assessment and Action Plan</li> <li>Collaborated in 2019 to implement legislative award to School of Public Health for a maternal health initiative, including a nationally-disseminated Public Health Live webcast on maternal mortality</li> <li>Title V Director and other staff regularly serve as guest lecturers in Maternal and Child Health courses at School of Public Health</li> <li>Ongoing partnership to support student practicums, internships, and assistantships based in the Division of Family Health</li> </ul>
Healthy Start	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In collaboration with the HRSA Regional Healthy Start Project Officer, Title V program coordinates communication and collaboration between the Healthy Start and Title V</li> </ul>

	Maternal and Infant Community Health Collaborative which was renamed to the Perinatal and Infant Community Health Collaborative <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ensure Perinatal and Infant Community Health Collaborative Programs engage the seven Healthy Start grantees serving common communities in outreach, intake, and referral processes.</li> <li>• Share webinar trainings and educational materials developed by the Maternal and Infant Health Center of Excellence with Healthy Start grantees.</li> <li>• The NYS Infant Mortality Collaborative Improvement and Innovation Network has engaged and is collaborating with Healthy Start agencies as part of its Safe Sleep Project with a goal of improving infant safe sleep practices to reduce infant mortality.</li> </ul>
Parent to Parent of NYS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• NY State's Family-to-Family grantee</li> <li>• Provided input, guidance, and outreach for input on NY's Title V comprehensive needs assessment.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with Parent to Parent of NYS to ensure the "parent voice" and point of view is reflected. For example, provided input into the parent materials on Critical Congenital Heart Defects screening.</li> </ul>
Early Hearing Detection and Intervention (EHDI)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Directly administered by the Division of Family Health, Bureau of Early Intervention</li> <li>• Works to ensure that screening occurs within the first month of life, infants requiring re-screening and/or diagnostic audiological evaluation receive services by three months of age, and infants identified as deaf or hard of hearing are connected with appropriate Early Intervention Program services no later than six months of age</li> </ul>
New York-Mid-Atlantic Consortium for Genetics and Newborn Screening Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff facilitated webinars on adolescent transition to adult services for genetic services providers, health care providers and the Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs program.</li> </ul>
Other Maternal and Child Health Workforce Training Programs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V participates in ongoing meetings with the Leadership Education in Neurodevelopment and Related Disabilities (LEND) fellows to share information regarding their post-graduate maternal and child health work performed as part of their fellowship training. Meetings also include representatives from the Developmental Disabilities Planning Council, Disability Rights New York, Division of Family Children's Services, and the Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs and other key stakeholders.</li> <li>• Title V staff representing the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative are participating in the Institute for Healthcare Improvement Breakthrough Through Series College training focused on improving the skills of state-based Perinatal Quality Collaboratives.</li> </ul>

Other Federal Investments
Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) Part C – federal Office of Special Education Programs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The NYS Early Intervention Program is directly managed by Title V program within the Division of Family Health.</li> <li>• NYSDOH is the NYS designated lead agency to administer the Early Intervention Program, a statewide service delivery system for infants and toddlers (ages birth to three) with disabilities and their families</li> </ul>
Personal Responsibility Education Program – Administration for Children and Families (ACF)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Directly administered by the Division of Family Health, Bureau of Perinatal, Reproductive, and Sexual Health</li> <li>• Promotes sexual health among adolescents 10-19 years, and pregnant and parenting youth in high need geographical areas through local community projects</li> <li>• Collaborates with the Comprehensive Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention and the Sexual Risk Avoidance Education programs to enhance pregnancy prevention efforts in the highest need communities, and the Family Planning Program to provide family planning and reproductive health referrals</li> </ul>
Rape Prevention Education – Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Directly managed by Title V program within the Division of Family Health. Development of a multi-faceted plan to evaluate regional and statewide activities to reduce sexual violence</li> </ul>
Special Supplemental Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) – US Department of Agriculture (USDA)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Managed by the NYSDOH Division of Nutrition.</li> <li>• Title V programs (e.g., home visiting) link eligible Maternal and Child Health populations to WIC resources</li> <li>• Exploring collaborations to promote oral health through WIC Program</li> <li>• NYS Infant Mortality Collaborative Improvement and Innovation Network Safe Sleep Project collaborates with WIC to disseminate messaging and resources related to infant safe sleep.</li> </ul>
Early Hearing Detection and Intervention (EHDI) – Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Directly administered by the Division of Family Health, Bureau of Perinatal, Reproductive, and Sexual Health</li> <li>• Works to ensure that the state monitors screening, follow-up, and connection with treatment for all infants born in NYS.</li> </ul>
Child Care Development Block Grant – Administration for Children and Families (ACF)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Managed by NYS Office of Children and Family Services.</li> <li>• Development of childcare health and safety standards, including medication administration, as well as quality indicators for Quality Stars NY</li> <li>• Plan to collaborate on development of subset of quality indicators for regulated childcare settings in upcoming year</li> </ul>
Support for Pregnant and Parenting Teens – Office of Population Affairs (OPA)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Directly managed by Title V program within the Division of Family Health. Enhances services of Title V programming by engaging pregnant and parenting teens and young adults in educational and vocational opportunities.</li> </ul>
Sexual Risk Avoidance Education Program –	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Directly managed by the Division of Family Health Bureau of Perinatal, Reproductive, and Sexual Health</li> </ul>

Administration for Children and Families (ACF)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Promotes abstinence from sexual activity and supports a health transition to adolescence for youth ages 10-13 through the use of evidence-based education, adult supervised program and parenting education</li> </ul>
Other HRSA Programs
Federally Qualified Health Centers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In collaboration with the NYSDOH Office of Primary Care and Health Systems Management, the Title V Program facilitates approval of site establishment/ expansion applications to build or renovate school-based health and dental clinics funded by HRSA grants</li> </ul>
Oral Health Workforce Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Directly managed by the Division of Family Health, Bureau of Child Health</li> <li>Works to enhance the capacity of dental workforce to meet the needs of underserved communities in dental health professional shortage areas, and School Based Health Center settings</li> <li>Collaborates with the School Based Health Center program to integrate oral health standards into current standards for providing medical services, with a focus on increasing fluoride varnish applications in the medical setting and decreasing opioid prescribing in the dental setting.</li> </ul>
Other NYSDOH Division of Family Health Programs and Initiatives
Infertility Demonstration Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Directly managed by the Division of Family Health, Bureau of Perinatal, Reproductive, and Sexual Health</li> <li>Provides high level infertility services to insured women with diagnosed infertility.</li> </ul>
Maternal and Early Childhood Foundation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Directly managed by the Division of Family Health, Bureau of Perinatal, Reproductive, and Sexual Health</li> <li>Provides prenatal and postnatal services to high-need, pregnant and parenting individuals, and their families.</li> </ul>
Other NYS Department of Health Programs
Division of Chronic Disease Prevention	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Title V staff in collaboration with the Division of Chronic Disease Prevention jointly developed media campaign on tobacco use among women of reproductive age and during pregnancy.</li> <li>Title V staff in collaboration with the Division of Chronic Disease Prevention integrated new family planning/ preconception health module within state's Behavioral Risk Fact Surveillance System, including expanding the survey sample size for county-level data.</li> <li>Support hospital- and community-based strategies to promote breastfeeding in alignment with evidence-based obesity prevention programming.</li> <li>Promoted evidenced-based models and methods to implement and sustain a population-based, system change response to reduce asthma-related hospitalizations.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Will explore options to promote preconception and interconception health for the Maternal and Child Health population.</li> </ul>
Division of Nutrition	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff facilitated collaboration between nutrition programs and state's Early Childhood Advisory Council to expand enrollment in the Child and Adult Care Food Program and incorporate nutrition standards and implementation supports within childcare quality standards.</li> <li>• Promoted participation in the Child and Adult Care Food Program with afterschool programs serving high-need youth and helped link to the Community Schools initiative.</li> <li>• Title V staff are exploring collaborations to promote oral health through statewide nutrition programs including WIC, and Hunger Prevention and Nutrition Assistance Program</li> <li>• Title V staff are working with WIC to promote reciprocal referrals with home visiting programs.</li> </ul>
Division of Epidemiology	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are working with Immunization program on providing training and educational tools for home visitors to support education to clients on importance and scheduling of required immunizations, and training of home visitors on the importance they themselves be up to date on immunizations.</li> <li>• Title V staff incorporated technical guidance on current immunization recommendations in clinical quality measures for the School Based Health Center program.</li> <li>• Title V staff are working with Immunization program to promote recommended immunizations (e.g., influenza and tetanus, diphtheria, and pertussis) for pregnant women.</li> </ul>
AIDS Institute	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating with the NYSDOH AIDS Institute and the State Education Department to promote the delivery of evidence-based HIV/STI prevention and sexual health promotion education.</li> <li>• Title V staff representing the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative continue collaboration with the AIDS Institute as part of the NYS Opioid Use Disorder in Pregnancy and Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome Project. Staff from the AIDS Institute serve on the project's Clinical Advisory Work Group and participate in the NYS. Additionally, Title V staff have engaged staff from the AIDS Institute to participate with them in the Opioid Use Disorder, Maternal Outcome, Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome Initiative (OMNI). As part of these collaborations, webinar opportunities have been developed and buprenorphine waiver trainings are under development to increase the proportion of perinatal providers eligible to provide medication-assisted treatment to pregnant and postpartum people with Opioid Use Disorder.</li> <li>• Title V staff, under the HRSA Oral Health Workforce Grant, are consulting with the Office of Drug User Health to develop a public health detailing campaign to address</li> </ul>

	opioid prescribing in the dental setting using a health literacy lens. The risk of prescribing opioids to adolescents and young adults is a focus of the training. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff, under the Family Planning Program, collaborate with the Office of Sexual Health and Epidemiology to improve screening for sexually transmitted infections (STIs) for individuals of reproductive age.</li> </ul>
Center for Environmental Health	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating with the Bureau of Occupational Health and Injury Prevention on evaluating the impact of NYSDOH sexual violence prevention interventions.</li> <li>• Title V staff are working with Injury Prevention to promote Safe Sleep through the Infant Mortality Collaborative Improvement and Innovation Network. Title V staff are collaborating with NYSDOH Center for Environmental Health to support maintenance and expansion of community water fluoridation, including joint development of new initiative.</li> <li>• Ongoing collaboration to promote healthy living environments.</li> </ul>
NY State of Health (Health Insurance Exchange)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff assisted with outreach to Maternal and Child Health programs to solicit patient navigators.</li> <li>• Title V staff in collaboration with the Office of Health Insurance Programs, facilitated training and the provision of information on NY's health benefit package and coverage to Maternal and Child Health programs and initiatives. Continue to monitor questions and issues that arise.</li> </ul>
Office of Quality and Patient Safety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff provided input into the development of standards for Medicaid Prenatal Care clinics.</li> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating on a Center for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) project with the Office of Health Insurance Programs through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative as collaboration of regional perinatal centers to improve perinatal outcomes.</li> <li>• Title V staff have a strong partnership with the Office of Quality and Patient Safety to obtain vital statistics, hospital discharge, and Medicaid data for identification of priorities, program planning and evaluation as well as quality improvement initiatives and are collaborating on the development of a perinatal warehouse to provide near-real time feedback to hospitals and regional perinatal centers on Maternal and Child Health key indicators.</li> </ul>
Office of Primary Care and Health Systems Management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In collaboration with Title V staff, provides certificate of need approval to School Based Health Center medical and dental clinics. Also provides the Certificate of Need approval to family planning clinics and consults with Title V staff for programmatic input.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In collaboration with Title V staff, developed standards and criteria for oversees the system of perinatal regionalization</li> <li>• Title V staff in conjunction with the Office of Victim Services developed communication disseminated to all NYS hospitals reminding them of the requirements concerning the reimbursement of forensic rape exams.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the Maternal Mortality Review Program, has established a partnership with the Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement within the Office of Primary Care and Health Systems Management to get prescription drug Information for Maternal Mortality Review.</li> <li>• Title V staff provide review of all labor and delivery/maternity and Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU)-related Certificate of Need requests, including construction, modification, new facility establishment and labor and delivery closure requests.</li> <li>• Title V staff have partnered with the Office of Primary Care and Health Systems Management to establish guidelines for expedited review of requests during the COVID-19 public health emergency in which specific requirements were eased through Executive Order.</li> <li>• Title V staff, under the HRSA Oral Health Workforce Grant, are consulting with the Bureau of Narcotic Enforcement to develop a public health detailing campaign to address opioid prescribing in the dental setting using a health literacy lens. The risk of prescribing opioids to adolescents and young adults is a focus of the training.</li> </ul>
Office of Minority Health and Health Disparities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating with NYSDOH Office of Minority Health to develop plan to work with Tribal Nations to develop protocol to ensure that diagnostic services related to cancer screening that take place off reservation with a medical partner of the Cancer Services program, are charged to NYS Cancer Services Program, to maximize utilization of American Indian Health Insurance Program funds for outpatient and pharmacy needs.</li> </ul>
Office of Public Health Practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with the Office of Public Health Practice to provide guidance and training for Local Health Departments to strengthen their efforts with the Maternal and Child Health population.</li> <li>• Title V staff are engaging with Public Health and Health Planning Council's public health committee on systems strategies to reduce maternal mortality.</li> </ul>
Office of Health Insurance Programs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are involved in ongoing collaboration to promote access to the Medicaid Family Planning Benefit Program</li> <li>• Title V staff work with the NYSDOH Office of Health Insurance Program to access vital statistics for evidence-based, data driven evaluation of activities.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V is working with the Office of Health Insurance Program to integrate perinatal health strategies and measures.</li> <li>• Title V staff are implementing Medicaid-funded demonstration project to use health information technology to improve screening and coordinated follow-up for high-risk pregnant women.</li> <li>• Title V staff worked with the Office of Health Insurance Program to convert Family Planning Benefit Program from 1115 waiver to state plan service pursuant to the Affordable Care Act and expanded to include presumptive eligibility.</li> <li>• Title V staff are extensively engaged in development and implementation of new Health Home benefit for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs, including services for children enrolled in Early Intervention Program services.</li> <li>• Title V staff and Office of Health Insurance Program staff are jointly leading stakeholder workgroup to facilitate transition of Medicaid coverage for School Based Health Center services from fee-for-service to managed care.</li> <li>• Title V staff provide expertise in the development of Medicaid payment policies such as deliveries prior to 39 weeks without medical indication including Cesarean-section births, oral health, and other areas impacting the Maternal and Child Health population.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative Opioid Use Disorder in Pregnancy and Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome Project, have engaged and are collaborating with the Office of Health Insurance Program as part of the Opioid Use Disorder, Maternal Outcome, Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome Initiative (OMNI).</li> <li>• Title V staff, under the HRSA Oral Health Workforce Grant, are consulting with Office of Health Insurance Program in the development of a public health detailing campaign to increase the number of young children receiving a fluoride varnish application in the medical setting.</li> </ul>
Other State Agencies
Office of Mental Health	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating with the Office of Mental Health to increase awareness of maternal depression, including providing information to providers and pregnant and postpartum women.</li> <li>• Title V staff are developing collaborative strategies with the Office of Mental Health to support young children's social and emotional development and provide supports for parents.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative NYS Opioid Use Disorder in Pregnancy and Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome Project and NYS Obstetric Hemorrhage Project have engaged and are collaborating</li> </ul>

	with staff from the Office of Mental Health. Office of Mental Health staff are serving on the clinical advisory work groups of both projects. Additionally, the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative is collaborating with Project TEACH's Maternal Mental Health Initiative to provide training opportunities and resources to hospital teams participating in the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff, through the Maternal Mortality Review Program, has established a partnership with the Office of Mental Health to gain access to the Psychiatric Services and Clinical Knowledge Enhancement System (PSYCKES) developed by the Office of Mental Health to obtain Psychiatric Services and Clinical information for NYS Medicaid members to facilitate Maternal Mortality Review.</li> </ul>
Office of Addiction Services and Supports (OASAS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating with the Office of Addiction Services and Supports to increase awareness of Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder among providers and preconception and prenatal women.</li> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating with the Office of Addiction Services and Supports to develop strategies to identify pregnant women with opioid use and ensure they are engaged in prenatal care, substance use treatment, and other needed services.</li> <li>• Title V staff serve on the Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder workgroup that includes state agencies as well as providers and other stakeholders to develop strategies to address Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder. Developed public awareness messages on the importance of abstaining from alcohol while pregnant. Provided information to the American Indian Health Nations on Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative Opioid Use Disorder in Pregnancy and Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome Project have engaged and are collaborating with staff from the Office of Addiction Services and Supports. The Office of Addiction Services and Supports staff serve on the project's clinical advisory work group.</li> <li>• Collaborated to develop community resource mapping tools to improve linkages to care, and on webinar opportunities to assist with training hospital teams regarding linkages to care.</li> <li>• Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting needs assessment requires input from the Office of Addiction Services and Supports regarding substance use among pregnant individuals and families with young children.</li> </ul>
Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating with the Office of Children and Family Services to provide training and technical assistance to home visiting programs including improving outreach and retention strategies and delivery of</li> </ul>

	information and supports impacting maternal and infant health and early childhood development. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff provided input on the Navigating Multiple Systems' site to ensure the issues and interests of the Maternal and Child Health population, including Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs are represented.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative and NYS Infant Mortality Collaborative Improvement and Innovation Network, continue to collaborate with staff from the Office of Children and Family Services related to infant safe sleep. The Office of Children and Family Services receives approximately half of the Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting grant and provides training and technical assistance to the Healthy Families New York home visiting programs statewide. Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting staff work with the Office of Children and Family Services for coordinated intake and referrals between home visiting programs.</li> </ul>
Office of Prevention of Domestic Violence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are involved in ongoing collaboration to address the domestic violence-related training needs of staff working in community maternal and child health, home visiting and family planning programs</li> <li>• Title V staff are collaborating with the Office of Prevention of Domestic Violence on development of training for home visitors on engagement and retention on high-risk clients including those who experience domestic violence.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with the Office of Prevention of Domestic Violence to develop and distribute materials to providers, to increase awareness of domestic violence, supports, resources and tools.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the Enough is Enough Program, collaborate with multiple state agencies for ongoing implementation of the Enough is Enough law; recent efforts include the expansion of Safer Bars initiative, and dissemination of information related to the amended federal Title IX rule (published May 19, 2020) between state agencies and with community partners.</li> </ul>
Office of People with Developmental Disabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff partner with the Office of People with Developmental Disabilities on various issues related to individuals with disabilities.</li> </ul>
Office of Victim Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff are involved in ongoing collaboration to address needs of programs funded to serve victims of sexual violence and respond to issues that impact victims of sexual violence</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the Sexual Assault Forensic Examiner (SAFE) program, developed and disseminated communications to NYS hospitals and rape crisis programs</li> </ul>

	regarding new sexual assault legislation and reimbursement of forensic rape exams. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with external partners like the Office of Victim Services and internal partners like the NYSDOH AIDS Institute and the Office of Primary Care and Health Systems Management to create an annual report on hospital treatment of sexual assault patients and the cost of their services.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with the Office of Victim Services on a workgroup to develop and distribute the New York State Sexual Assault Bill of Rights.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with the Office of Victim Services on a workgroup to improve the New York State Sexual Offense Evidence Collection Kit process, including kit storage and tracking.</li> </ul>
State Education Department (SED)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff provide technical assistance to Community schools to promote collaboration to maximize resources available to children and adolescents in those schools.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the Enough is Enough Program, collaborate with multiple state agencies for ongoing implementation of the Enough is Enough law; recent efforts include the expansion of Safer Bars initiative, and dissemination of information related to the amended federal Title IX rule (published May 19, 2020) between state agencies and with community partners.</li> </ul>
New York State Police	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with State Police on a workgroup to develop and distribute the New York State Sexual Assault Bill of Rights.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with State Police on a workgroup to improve the New York State Sexual Offense Evidence Collection Kit process, including kit storage and tracking.</li> </ul>
Council on Children and Families	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff work with the Council on Children and Families on the Early Childhood Advisory Council, the Early Childhood Comprehensive Systems grant and other early childhood initiatives.</li> <li>• Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting program work with Council on Children and Families staff to create an online map of NYS home visiting services.</li> </ul>
Tribal and Local Maternal and Child Health Programs
Local Health Departments/ New York State Association of County Health Officials	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V developed Family Health components of updated statute, regulations and implementing guidance documents for State Aid to localities for core public health (Article VI)</li> <li>• Regular meetings with the NYS Association of County Health Officials Steering and Maternal and Child Health committees and ad hoc work groups for input on Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs program planning, Health Home, Early Intervention and Title V needs and priorities.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Collaborating to develop training and technical assistance for all Local Health Departments to improve Maternal and Child Health outcomes on the local level.</li> </ul>
Tribes, Tribal Organizations and Urban Indian Organizations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V program administers a state program that provides access to primary medical care, dental care, eye care, pharmacy needs and preventive health services for approximately 25,000 Native Americans living within reservation communities. This includes nine recognized American Indian nations in NYS: Tonawanda, Tuscarora, Onondaga, Shinnecock, Unkechaug, Cayuga, St Regis Mohawk, Seneca, and Oneida.</li> <li>• Title V staff serve as liaison with the Nations to ensure the interests of the nations are represented in decisions and information, such as Affordable Care Act-related information, is conveyed to Nation leadership.</li> <li>• Title V staff participated in quarterly Tribal Consultation meetings with Office of Children and Family Services to share resources on child wellness, behavioral health, victim assistance programs, and educational resources for families.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborated with CDC immunization liaison to encourage tribal participation in Vaccine for Children program and adult vaccine program.</li> </ul>
Academic and Professional Institutions and Organizations
SUNY Albany School of Public Health	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V supports Maternal and Child Health student internships focusing on providing these students with public health experience at NYSDOH on Maternal and Child Health initiatives.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborated with the School of Public Health on a series of webinars to improve knowledge and practices including topics such as breastfeeding and screening for Critical Congenital Heart Defects.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborated with the School of Public Health on the development of a successful Maternal and Child Health catalyst grant.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborated with the School of Public Health Maternal and Child Health Program to conduct a literature review of research, policy and guidance related to COVID-19's impact on pregnancy.</li> <li>• Title V staff, under the Health Resources and Services Administration's Oral Health Workforce Grant, are collaborating with School of Public Health on a series of continuing education webinars for local health departments and medical professionals on oral health in the primary care medical setting. Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting needs assessment completed with the assistance of School of Public Health Master of Public Health interns.</li> </ul>

Professional Medical Organizations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists to develop and promote best practices to improve perinatal outcomes.</li> <li>• Title V staff coordinate NY's Maternal Mortality Review Committee that includes representatives from NY Academy of Medicine, American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, NYS Society of Pathologists, NYS Nurses Association, NYS Association of County Health Officials, NYS Association of Licensed Midwives, NYS Academy of Family Physicians, National Association of Social Workers, NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, NYS Association of County Coroners and Medical Examiners, NYC Office of the Chief Medical Examiner, Association of Regional and Perinatal Networks, NYS Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse, NY American College of Emergency Physicians, Medical Society of the State of New York, NYS Society of Anesthesiologists, NYS Dietetic Association, Greater New York Hospital Association, Healthcare Association of NYS, and Regional Perinatal Centers.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative, lead the Obstetric Hemorrhage Project and Opioid Use Disorder in Pregnancy and Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome Project in collaboration with American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists District II NY.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative and NYS Infant Mortality Collaborative Improvement and Innovation Network, continue to work with American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists District II NY and the American Academy of Pediatrics to disseminate infant safe sleep messaging.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative, are collaborating with the NYS chapter of Association of Women's Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses (AWHONN) to develop trainings for hospital teams to improve skills related to quantification of blood loss for obstetric patients.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative, participate in the national American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists Alliance for Innovation on Maternal Health (AIM), and additionally, serve on the project's metrics work group.</li> <li>• NY's Maternal Mortality Review Committee that includes representatives from the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, NYS Academy of Family Physicians, NYS Perinatal Association, Association of Regional Perinatal Programs and Networks, NYS Medicaid Office, NYS Nurses Association, NYS Association of County Health Officials, NYS Association of Licensed Midwives, NYC Department of Mental Health and Hygiene, Greater</li> </ul>
------------------------------------	--

	New York Hospital Association, Healthcare Association of NYS, Regional Perinatal Centers, and the NYS Office of Mental Health.
Cornell University	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with Cornell through the Center of Excellence to support implementation of evidence-based programming and evaluation of adolescent pregnancy prevention/pregnant and parenting teen activities.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative and NYS Infant Mortality Collaborative Improvement and Innovation Network, continue to work with the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists District II NY and the American Academy of Pediatrics to disseminate infant safe sleep messaging.</li> </ul>
University of Rochester	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with the University of Rochester through the Center of Excellence on training, technical assistance, and evaluation of community maternal and infant health initiatives.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative, are collaborating with the NYS chapter of the Association of Women's Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses (AWHONN) to develop trainings for hospital teams to improve skills related to quantification of blood loss for obstetric patients.</li> </ul>
Columbia University	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with Columbia University to develop training for health care providers on adolescent health topics to improve general and sexual health outcomes.</li> <li>• Title V staff, through the New York State Perinatal Quality Collaborative, participate in the national American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists Alliance for Innovation on Maternal Health (AIM), and additionally, serve on the project's metrics work group.</li> </ul>
University of Albany Center for Human Services Research	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with the University at Albany on data management for community maternal and infant health initiatives.</li> <li>• NY's Maternal Mortality Review Committee that includes representatives from American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, NYS Academy of Family Physicians, NYS Perinatal Association, Association of Regional Perinatal Programs and Networks, NYS Medicaid Office, NYS Nurses Association, NYS Association of County Health Officials, NYS Association of Licensed Midwives, NYC Department of Mental Health and Hygiene, Greater New York Hospital Association, Healthcare Association of NYS, Regional Perinatal Centers, and the NYS Office of Mental Health.</li> </ul>
University at Buffalo School of Dental Medicine and School of Pharmacy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff, under the HRSA Oral Health Workforce Grant, are collaborating with the University at Buffalo on a continuing education training for dentists on opioid prescribing in the dental setting using a health literacy lens.</li> </ul>
Other NYS Maternal and Child Health serving organizations

Schuyler Center for Analysis and Advocacy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff participate on the Schuyler Center for Analysis and Advocacy State Home Visiting Workgroup which facilitates discussions on the critical elements of a statewide home visiting system including outreach and engagement of high-risk families, promotion of a continuum of services, and quantifying need for services.</li> <li>• Title V staff collaborate with the Schuyler Center for Analysis and Advocacy to promote community water fluoridation, and address early childhood caries through community engagement</li> </ul>
Hands and Voices	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Organization comprised of parents and providers dedicated to supporting families with children who are deaf or hard of hearing, regardless of communication modes or methodologies. Provides input into NY's Early Hearing Detection Initiative.</li> </ul>
NYS Collaborative Improvement and Innovation Network to Reduce Infant Mortality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Collaboration of Title V, the National Institute for Children's Health Quality, and community-based organizations, including the Perinatal and Infant Community Health Collaborative programs and Healthy Start programs, to reduce infant mortality by using evidence-based strategies to accomplish the common aim.</li> </ul>
New York School-Based Health Alliance (NYSBHA)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An advocacy organization representing the interests of School Based Health Centers across New York State. Consultation with this organization provides a better understanding of the needs and concerns of clinics and their Article-28 operators. The New York School-Based Health Alliance representatives have been active participants in the work towards transitioning School Based Health Centers into Medicaid Managed Care and will be consulted as part of the work to revise current program guidance.</li> </ul>
Greater New York Hospital Association (GNYHA)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate on a workgroup to develop and distribute the New York State Sexual Assault Bill of Rights.</li> </ul>
Healthcare Association of New York State	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff collaborate on a workgroup to develop and distribute the New York State Sexual Assault Bill of Rights.</li> </ul>
Community Health Care Association of New York State (CHCANYS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An advocacy organization representing the interests of federally qualified health centers across New York State. All School Based Health Centers are operated by Article 28 hospitals or diagnostic and treatment centers, many of which are federally qualified health centers. Additionally, many School Based Health Centers are individually classified as federally qualified health centers. Consultation with this organization provides a better understanding of the needs and concerns specific to federally qualified health centers. The Community Health Care Association of New York State representatives have been active participants in the work towards transitioning School Based Health Centers into Medicaid Managed Care and will be consulted as part of the work to revise current program guidance.</li> </ul>

State Advisory Councils
Maternal and Child Health Services Block Grant Advisory Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff convene and provide staff support to Council</li> <li>• Through regular virtual and in-person meetings, Council members provide input and feedback on full range of Title V priorities and activities.</li> </ul>
Early Intervention Coordinating Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V and Early Intervention staff convene and provide staff support to Council</li> <li>• Extensive input on Early Intervention policy and program activities including State Systemic Improvement Plan to improve family outcomes</li> <li>• Co-convened, with Early Childhood Advisory Council, Joint Task Force on Social Emotional Development of Young Children</li> </ul>
Early Childhood Advisory Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff represented on the Early Childhood Advisory Council, Steering Committee, and work groups</li> <li>• Development and implementation of health-related quality standards for Quality Stars NY (NY's tiered quality rating and improvement system for early learning programs)</li> <li>• Co-convening, with the Early Intervention Coordinating Council, of Joint Task Force on Social Emotional Development of Young Children</li> <li>• In June 2019, convened a taskforce to develop recommendations for the Department to increase provider workforce capacity to deliver Early Intervention Program services to eligible children with developmental delays or disabilities and their families.</li> </ul>
NYS Office of Victims Services Advisory Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff represented on Council; provides expertise regarding prevention of sexual violence.</li> </ul>
Office for the Prevention of Domestic Violence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Title V staff represented on Council; provides expertise regarding prevention of sexual violence and intimate partner violence.</li> </ul>
Maternal Mortality and Morbidity Advisory Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Convened by the Title V program with representation from over 20 professional organizations and associations.</li> <li>• Reviews aggregate data, discusses trends and emerging issues and provides recommendations regarding opportunities for improvement including preventive measures, strategies to improve care and medical management, and educational need to be addressed.</li> </ul>